http://www.thinkuknow.co.uk	 The thumbnail for the thinkuknow website features a colorful background with the word 'Howdy' in large letters. Below it are age ranges: '5-7?', '8-10?', and '11-16?'. To the right, it asks 'Parent? Carer?' and 'Teacher? Trainer?'. A 'THINK U KNOW' logo is in the top right. At the bottom, it says 'Welcome to CEOP's thinkuknow website' and 'Think before you send'.	Come in to find the latest information on the sites you like to visit, mobiles and new technology. Find out what's good, what's not and what you can do about it. If you look after young people there's an area for you too – with resources you can use in the classroom, at home or just to get with it. Most importantly, there's also a place which anyone can use to report if they feel uncomfortable or worried about someone they are chatting to online. All the information here is brought to you by the team at the Child Exploitation and Online Protection (CEOP) Centre.
http://www.ceop.police.uk/	 The thumbnail for the CEOP website shows the header 'Child Exploitation and Online Protection Centre' with a navigation menu. A 'CLICK CEOP Internet Safety' logo is prominent. Below, there are sections for 'Click CEOP', 'Click Cover, Click Safe, Click CEOP', and 'Who will go to help if I'm in safe?'. A 'Think before you send' banner is at the bottom.	The Child Exploitation and Online Protection (CEOP) Centre delivers a multi-agency service dedicated to tackling the exploitation of children. That means building intelligence around the risks, tracking and bringing offenders to account either directly or with local and international police forces and working with children and parents to deliver our unique ThinkuKnow internet safety programme. Our approach is truly holistic, our style is totally inclusive and our appeal is to everyone out there to work with us in making every child matter, everywhere.

http://parents.vodafone.com/		Online has become an extension of the offline world for many people and you no doubt want to encourage your kids to make the most of new technologies. It's crucial that they develop IT skills and social skills that benefit their personal lives, education and, eventually, work. But you also recognise that new technologies bring new challenges and risks, so it's vital that you're engaged with your child's digital world as well as their real world. Just as you show an interest in their hobbies, friends and what's happening at school, you need to understand what they do on the internet, their mobile and other devices. And you need to get involved. That way, you can help them to use new technologies in a positive and responsible manner and work together to develop strategies for managing their digital spaces.
